DENISE COTE, District Judge:

On March 25, 2020, the plaintiff moved for a default judgment. By an Order of March 30, plaintiff was directed to serve the default judgment papers on the defendant at the business address listed on its website. On April 1, plaintiff's counsel filed an affidavit attesting that such service had been made by overnight mail. The Court takes notice that California, the state in which defendant has its business address, was then and is currently under a stay-at-home order due to COVID-19.¹ Consequently, mail service may not have been effective. A default judgment hearing is currently scheduled for April 17 at 2:00 p.m. Accordingly, it is hereby

ORDERED that plaintiff's counsel shall immediately attempt to contact the defendant through the telephone number and
